

INTEGRATED PROFESSIONALS FORUM

Integrated Professionals Forum (IPF) is a network of professionals from various fields driven by one motto that is "excellence with ethics at the root and the healthy nation building follows".

It is an initiative by visionary professional leaders. It's vision is to develop ethics driven and socially committed professionals and guiding them to active role in the society and nation building process.

Vision

Developing socially committed, ethics driven professionals contributing in nation building process

IPF Forums

Medical Forum

Technology Forum

Lawyers Forum

Economic Forum

R & D Forum

Civil Servants Forum

Teachers Forum

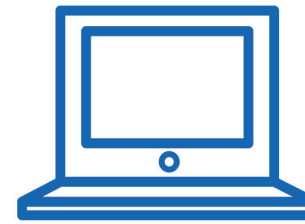

Journalist Forum

Medical Forum Objectives

- To establish a platform for medical professionals to achieve morality, purity with firm belief
- To enhance the public health care system through capitalizing the advances in medical sciences and promote research and development in the field of medical sciences
- To promote community focused and people oriented health care system
- To enhance the skills and competencies of medical professionals through various interventions
- To channel the knowledge, expertise, and competencies of health care professionals in community development initiatives especially in health related areas as well as nation building process
- To Setup and supervise hospitals and community medical centers for the relief of people.

Technology Forum Objectives

- To Promote professional network among engineers and technocrats
- To Channel the advancement of engineering technics to the industry, social development and nation building process
- To Enhance the exchange of knowledge, ideas expertise among engineers and technocrats
- To Utilize the expertise in social development initiatives
- To Promote the professional development of members
- To Design and implement employability orientation and training programs
- To Establish employment guidance and placement cell
- To Actively involve R&D initiative.
- To Apply technology for the welfare of society
- To Give legal awareness to people on technology and other aspects

Economic Forum Objectives

- To Strengthen the existing entrepreneurial network and graduate them into a high growth path and nurture new, good potential and promising entrepreneurs for the benefit of the society.
- To Work closely with industry, academia and government for initiating better management and development process
- To Make salutary contribution to management learning and practices
- To Establish an interest free financial corporation (By abiding Indian laws) for promoting - self help groups through micro finance, startups through seed and angel funding s, existing businesses through VC funding etc.
- To Establish incubation labs
- To Connect mentors and mentees
- To Connect entrepreneurs and investors

Lawyers Forum Objectives

- To Conduct deep study of legal points that may lead to injustice to people and suggest remedial measures.
- To Give awareness to people on important and necessity of obeying laws and on need of maintaining legal records
To Conduct coaching for Judges Exams.
- To Prepare students for CLAT
- To Provide legal aid to the poor and downtrodden by setting up LEGAL CLINICS.
- To Establish Counselling centers
- To Conducting legal Seminars (e.g.:- constitution of India specially on Fundamental Rights)
- To Start Pre and post marital counselling along with dispute resolution forums
- To Start supporting Schemes for law students and junior advocates.

R&D Forum Objectives

- To Supervise and guide researchers for finding solutions to socially relevant issues
- To Form a group of eminent and expert research supervisors in all domains who can give assistances to students pursuing research in universities and other research centers.
- To Conduct national and inter national conferences which enables researchers to share their thoughts, ideas and to present the research outcomes.
- To Publish a well reputed international journal which can enable researchers for communicating their research results.
- To Arrange training programs to give awareness to researchers on research methodology, ways and tools of technical writing and assist them to publish papers in referred journals

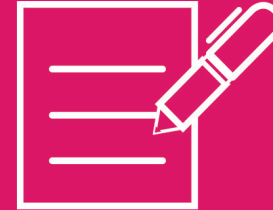

Teachers Forum Objectives

- To Conduct training programs that should result competent teachers who are very effective in their profession.
- To Focus on a group of teachers capable of handling immoral activities of students so as to produce model students and good academic culture.
- To Organize activities for updating contemporary knowledge and tools with an objective of guiding students towards the requirements of future needs
- To Promote mentoring systems among students and teachers
- To Prepare useful materials and conduct awareness programs to parents and students on positive and negative impact of social media

Civil Servants Forum Objectives

- To Provide guidance and ways of approach to public on how and from where different services can be obtained.
- To Prepare and distribute procedures and forms (if needed) to get various government services.
- To Setup helpdesk services for various governmental and non-governmental services
- To Conduct quality improvement programs for institutions / N G O s

Journalist Forum Objectives

- To Setup a platform for sharing ideas, debates and get together
- To Setup a Journalism training center
- To Help for setting up the media management strategy for Institutions/N G O s
- To Develop media outlets for Institutions/ N G O s and also to help for media kit preparations
- To Create Think tank on media activism
- To Setup a lab for continuous updation and learning

IPF Members Profile

08

Doctors

IT Professionals

Government officers

Engineers

Entrepreneurs

Higher secondary teachers and Senior high school teachers

Advocates

Journalists

Company Accountants

CA/CS

College teachers

Paramedical and other medical supporting staffs

PhD Holders

Management
people

Company
administration staffs

Integrated Professionals Forum (IPF),
Youth Square, Kozhikode-6, www.ipfonline.org, info@ipfonline.org